

Balatonfüred Destination Fact Sheet

BUDAPEST
CONVENTION BUREAU

Balatonfüred is a small town with 13,500 inhabitants, on the north shore of Lake Balaton, surrounded by gently sloping hillocks. It is an ancient settlement which was already inhabited during the reign of the Roman Empire. First and foremost the location of the town captures everyone: tender mountains on the north, the beautiful lake on the south embrace the town, which radiates that special Transdanubian serenity for ages. The town is incredibly rich in historical sights, the town has numerous monuments, historical buildings and traditions. Balatonfüred is mainly known by its climate which is very similar to the Mediterranean and its spring waters containing carbonic acid. With its 429 beds the State Hospital for Cardiology in Balatonfüred boasts the largest cardiac-rehabilitation center in Hungary.
