

Kecskemét Destination Fact Sheet

BUDAPEST
CONVENTION BUREAU

Kecskemét is the most important settlement between two rivers Danube and Tisza, an economic, ecclesiastical and educational centre with many cultural institutions and university faculties. The city lies halfway between the capital, Budapest and the country's third-largest city, Szeged, 86 kilometres (53 miles) from both of them and almost equal distance from the two big rivers of the country, the Danube and the Tisza. It is the eighth-largest city in the country, and the county seat of Bács-Kiskun.
